1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Excellent Family Law Material for AttorneysBy Thomas HeedThis is the companion manual to the 9 hour DVD set on how to practice family law. These are really great materials compiled by one of the top divorce attorneys in the country. Mercer has been both a divorce litigation attorney as well as a mediator, so the materials address a very insightful way to interview and interact with clients as well as prepare for court hearings using top level litigation techniques as well as the enhanced communication that her mediation expertise. Even if you don't buy the DVDs, the materials contain a ton of forms, templates and questionnaires that you can use in your family law practice. I'm impressed. Very few of these legal instruction things are so thorough---including the fancy ones published by the ABA.

This manual contains the written materials, forms and templates for Diana Mercer's series of 9 one-hour family law training programs. This program is designed so that any new family law attorney or transitioning practitioner can add

From the first client intake to drafting the Judgment, this set covers it all: - Family Law Client Interview and Intake - Preparing Your Client for a Court-Ordered Custody Mediation or Evaluation - Discovery Basics: Reality Check, Tax Returns, Wage Records, Perks, Subpoenas, and Your Own Disclosures - Preparing For Evidentiary Hearings: You and Your Client - Negotiating a Settlement: Client Conversations, Settlement Meetings, Mediations - Preparing for a Pretrial Settlement Conference Custody: Crafting a Developmentally Sound Parenting Plan - Drafting a Tight Judgment - ADR in Family Law: Mediation, Collaborative Law, Arbitration, Private Judges
