M. Jean Rawson : A Manual of Special Education Law for Educators and Parents before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised A Manual of Special Education Law for Educators and Parents:

A manual designed for school districts, students studying special education in colleges and universities, and parents of special education students. It is a complete overview of the federal law including IDEA and federal Regulations, illustrated with up-to-date cases. Important portions of the law are highlighted in "Noteworthy" footnotes, and the text is further enhanced with quotations, poems, and illustrations by children with disabilities. This concise guide to the law is a well-organized, easy-to-read reference. Contents: Introduction; Definitions; Identification; Evaluation; Determination of Eligibility; Individualized Education Programs; Placement; Discipline; Procedural Safeguards; Mediation; Due Process Hearings; Attorneys' Fees; Damages; Charter Schools; Children in Private Schools.
