I Could not seem put it down. A few years ago our family went through a similar battle As a family it was hard. . To imagine the young authors journey and her amazing her strength and faith in God was encouraging . A very good short read. I find my self wanting to know more about their lives today and wondering if they have the relationship that Linda Allen deserves. May God Bless her and her daughter and anyone dealing with a similar situation find the strength and encouragement. To never give up. Shame on the Pierce County authorities . The system set up to make money rather than protect the innocent. 3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Incredible book about a Mother who fought hard or her daughter By Cathy Choate This book is for everyone involved in helping children. Lynda fought so hard for her daughter to keep her safe. Every time it looked like she would feel heard, the system would ignore her. As a Guardian Ad Litem myself, this was a story that I hope everyone can read. Every parent should be heard. And everyone in the court system need to be open making changes. 3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. A must read for all! By Hampden Fitcher Your book is wonderful and your heart is transparent. That is a goal that 99 percent of people miss. With networking, prayer and this book will get this into the right hands! A must read for young college students with a desire to help others! All who read your book will know people who should or need to read this book. I would give you five stars all day long.

This masterpiece recounts the steps of a long dark journey that a survivor of sexual abuse faced, after she became the mother of a daughter that faced this same abuse. The author fled a volatile boyfriend, taking her young daughter to protect her, but had a rude awakening when a fierce fight ensued over the custody of her child. This book is a must read for Parents, Judges, Lawyers, GAL's, Children's Protective Services, Social Service Workers and any professional who retains any decision making capacity pertaining to "The Best Interest of a Child".
