Luis de Molina : A Treatise on Money (Sources in Early Modern Economics, Ethics, and Law) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised A Treatise on Money (Sources in Early Modern Economics, Ethics, and Law):

A Treatise on Money is a selection from Luis de Molinas larger work On Justice and Right. In these selections, he examines the various kinds of contracts and businessmen of his day and applies the scholastic method to analyze the nature of currency and exchange, offering a unique and indispensable look into the origins of modern monetary theory.
