Peter A. Davidson : Ask The Receiver before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Ask The Receiver:

I'm new to receivership matters and found this book to be a great introduction to the topicBy Steve RozenblattEvery law firm that does receivership should have a copy of this book in their law library. I'm new to receivership matters and found this book to be a great introduction to the topic.

A question and answer book on all things a legal receiver might, and probably should, know. Based on Peter A. Davidson's blog. Mr. Davidson acts as a receiver, conservator and court appointed monitor in state and federal court. As an attorney at Ervin Cohen Jessup, llp, he represents receivers, plaintiffs and defendants in receivership actions; as well as trustees, creditors' committees, secured creditors and debtors in bankruptcy court.
