Burns Weston, Richard Falk, Hilary Charlesworth, Andrew Strauss : Basic Document Supplement to International Law and World Order (American Casebook Series) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Basic Document Supplement to International Law and World Order (American Casebook Series):

The majority of material is organized around the conceptually divisible components of our otherwise indivisible world order: "war/peace," "human rights/social justice," "economic trade/development," and "earth/space environment." The remainder, the "constitutive/organic" and the "miscellaneous," reflect the truism that no typology, no matter how well conceived, can ever fully comprehend the diversity of human affairs.
