From Brand: Blackstone Press Ltd : Blackstone's EC Legislation 2001/2002 (Blackstone's Statute Books)
before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Blackstone's EC Legislation 2001/2002 (Blackstone's Statute Books):

Blackstone's Statute Books have been designed specifically to provide students with a collection of statutes for use throughout their course, and now cover all the main law subjects. The series has been produced following careful research of the syllabuses of most law courses. As a result, the authors have been able to produce a concise collection of relevant statutes, eliminating some of the non-essential material and concentrating on the more important statutes. This new edition has been fully revised to include the Treaty of Nice with all protocols and declarations added to it. The new Regulation on budgetary discipline, the Decision on own resources and the Decision on delegated powers have been added along with the declaration and agreement on delegated powers. The two equality Directives 2000/43 and 2000/78 enacted under the new general power of Article 13 EC are also included. Directives and block exemption Regulations have been added and all other amendments and corrections have been made.

About the Author Nigel Foster is a Senior Lecturer in Law at Cardiff Law School. He has lectured in EC Law for many years and specialises in German law. He is the author of German Legal System and Laws, SWOT EC Law and Q and A EC Law, and is the editor of Blackstone's EC Legislation Handbook. He also contributes to the CCH Encyclopedia of European Law. Having spent a year as a Guest Professor at the University of Innsbruck he is completing a book on Austrian Law.
