Nichola Gray, Dominic Brazil : Blackstone's Guide to the Civil Partnership Act 2004 (Blackstone's Guide Series) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Blackstone's Guide to the Civil Partnership Act 2004 (Blackstone's Guide Series):

The Civil Partnerships Act 2004 is a ground-breaking piece of legislation which allows for the first time, adult same-sex couples to create a legal status, similar to marriage. The Act will come into force in late 2005/early 2006 and remove the statutory discrimination that currently exists in relation to same sex couples. It will also amend a variety of existing statutes. This Guide contains a copy of the Act and explains clearly how it fits with current arrangements for same sex partners. It contains practical step-by-step guides to aid understanding and is an ideal quick reference resource for practitioners in the field.

It is a credit to the authors that they have managed to write a comprehensive guide to the major areas well in advance...The book is well referenced throughout, and always directs the reader back to the relevant part of the primary legislation. It also explains in straightforward terms how the provisions of the Act inter-relate with existing legislation...I found this an extremely useful guide to what is a complex new piece of law.'Jon Cartwright (Hazelwoods LLP) New Law Journal
