From Brand: Blackstone Press : Blackstone's Statutes on Media Law (Blackstone's Statute Book Series) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Blackstone's Statutes on Media Law (Blackstone's Statute Book Series):

This new addition to the Blackstone's Statutes series provides a comprehensive collection of important legislative provisions of UK, EC, and international law governing the print and broadcast media.

About the Author Richard Caddell graduated from University of Wales Cardiff in 1999 with an honours degree in Law and Spanish. In 2001 he earned an LL.M degree in Commercial Law, also from University of Wales, Cardiff, awarded with Distinction (both overall and also for the thesis). He was appointed to a lectureship in law at University of Wales, Bangor, in September 2004. Howard Johnson is Assistant Director of Centre for Medico-Legal Studies and he has worked at Cardiff University since 1976. His interests range over commercial law, the law of intellectual property and media law. He is the Administrative Editor of the Butterworths Medico-Legal Reports and an Associate Editor of Communications Law.
