This legal guide is a must-have for anyone in California thinking about making a will or trust for themselves or a loved one with a disability. It gives the statutory codes you need for understanding wills and trusts as well as the statutory will template. There are also templates created by estate law attorney Brenda J. Edwards. In addition, there are bonus templates at the end of the book for powers of attorney over financial affairs and powers of attorney for advance health care directives. A wonderfully informative and useful legal guide for anyone considering making a will or trust.
