Book by Ed Sherman

Marriage involves the most important contract anybody ever signs, yet most people are not aware of the legal implications. [California Marriage Law] is a guide book to the legal aspects of all phases of marriage including community and separate property, buying a house and more. -- Long Beach Independent-Press Telegram People marry only with the knowledge that they are in love-that's not enough. This book should be a text in every high school and college. -- CBS News-Los Angeles This book is for everyone. It is well written, comprehensible, and covers most of the circumstances of life experienced by the majority of Californians. -- San Francisco Chronicle From the Back
