Must Ask Before Revealing Your Idea to (Or Hiring) Legal Counsel (Invention Prep) (Volume 3):

If you are planning on hiring a patent attorney, you should read this book first. Why? Because the wrong patent attorney can bleed you for thousands of dollars...waste years of your time...and...in the worst case scenario, run off with your idea. I should know. For two years I worked in a law firm that specialized in patents. And during that time I spoke with hundreds of inventors and heard some naughty secrets about other patent attorneys. From those conversations, and the questions inventors asked me, I put together this list of 27 questions and answers. They are designed to show you exactly what you must ask an attorney (or anyone for that matter) before you trust them with your idea. This book is a quick read. My hope is that it will help you find the right attorney and save you a ton of time and money in the process.
