The case briefs are clearly laid out, with the posture of the case, facts, rule of law, issue and holding laid out clearly and concisely. I usually read it when preparing for class to help me make sure I understood the case assigned, and then I use it for exam review when I'm studying for finals. It's helpful to get a snapshot of the case that is more in depth than my notes without having to reread the whole case. It's also very lightweight, which I appreciate because my textbooks are so bulky!

After your casebook, Casnote Legal Briefs will be your most important reference source for the entire semester. It is the most popular legal briefs series available, with over 140 titles, and is relied on by thousands of students for its expert case summaries, comprehensive analysis of concurrences and dissents, as well as of the majority opinion in the briefs.
