Professor Paula Giliker, David Harris, Sandesh Sivakumaran : Cases and Materials on International Law before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Cases and Materials on International Law:

Students of Public International Law require access to an overwhelming variety of materials which are not always easy to obtain. Cases and Materials on International Law draws together in one volume an exhaustive selection of cases, materials and background information on the subject, which is supplemented by authoritative commentary and expert analysis. Widely recognised as the leading text of its kind, the eighth edition of Cases and Materials on International Law incorporates all major developments in the subject, including: International Court of Justice judgments on the jurisdictional immunity of states (Germany v Italy) and on the obligation to prosecute or extradite in cases of torture (Belgium v Senegal), as well as the Court's advisory opinion on the legality of the declaration of independence in respect of Kosovo New judgments of the International Court of Justice and the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea on maritime disputes The International Law Commission's Guide to Practice on Reservations to Treaties The use of force in Crimea, Libya and Cote D'Ivoire Developments in the UN human rights system
