Martin Dixon, Robert McCorquodale, Sarah Williams : Cases Materials on International Law before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Cases Materials on International Law:

Cases Materials on International Law is a topical and engaging companion for study, offering broad coverage on public international law and placing disputes directly within the context of contemporary debate. The book contains the essential cases and materials that students need in order to fully understand and analyse the international legal system, drawing on a truly global range of jurisdictions and sources. Expert author commentary and notes place selected extracts within the wider legal framework and explain the complexities of the principles of law to students. The sixth edition includes expanded discussion of developing areas, including UN resolutions on climate change and international environmental law, new material from the International Law Commission, and coverage of major events, such as the annexation of Crimea, the legal context for Scottish independence and the UK's exit from the European Union, and the United Nations Security Council's Resolution on Malaysia Airlines MH17.

from previous edition: "This is an excellent book on international law. It is well written, clearly structured, and supported by well selected cases." --Dr Federico Velez, Zayed University
