This new volume, with expert commentary by Judge Edward Jacobs, contains the primary and secondary legislation relating to all child support schemes currently in operation. With information on the rules of procedure for the First-tier Tribunal and the Upper Tribunal, it provides an authoritative analysis of decisions made by the courts to show how the law governing each scheme has been interpreted and applied. Updated to include all amendments to legislation and covering the latest caselaw, it is a vital resource for anyone taking cases to review or appeal.
