Ronald Jennings : Christians and Muslims in Ottoman Cyprus and the Mediterranean World, 1571-1640 (International Library of Essays in Law and Legal Theory) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Christians and Muslims in Ottoman Cyprus and the Mediterranean World, 1571-1640 (International Library of Essays in Law and Legal Theory):

Wrested from the rule of the Venetians, the island of Cyprus took on cultural shadings of enormous complexity as a new province of the Ottoman empire, involving the compulsory migration of hundreds of Muslim Turks to the island from the nearby Karamna province, the conversion of large numbers of native Greek Orthodox Christians to Islam, an abortive plan to settle Jews there, and the circumstances of islanders who had formerly been held by the Venetians. Delving into contemporary archival records of the late sixteenth and early seventeenth centuries, particularly judicial registers, Professor Jennings uncovers the island society as seen through local law courts, public works, and charitable institutions.
