From Springer : Competence Assessment in Dementia before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Competence Assessment in Dementia:

The increasing proportion of demented elderly in populations, debates over patients rights and autonomy, and the growing body of knowledge on dementia has inspired the European Dementia Consensus Network to regard competence assessment in dementia as an important topic of debate. This book contains a summarised consensus as well as chapters on state-of-art neuropsychological functions and how they relate to competence, and chapters discussing ethical, legal perspectives.
