Penny Hazelton : Computer Assisted Legal Research: The Basics (American Casebook) (American Casebook Series) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Computer Assisted Legal Research: The Basics (American Casebook) (American Casebook Series):

Gives students a first, practical overview of computerassisted legal research (CALR) before they have handson CALR training sessions. Provides, among other things, an indepth look at strategies needed to integrate traditional print sources and the wide variety of computerized tools. Provides balanced, accurate and integral content. Written by Penny A. Hazelton, Law Librarian and Professor of Law, University of Washington. Part of the American Casebook Series, each designed to illustrate the development of a body of law on a particular subject. Text and explanatory materials accompany cases.
